

Name: _____

Directions to Grandma's

Directions: Use the following word bank to complete this set of directions to Grandma's home TWICE – once using the appropriate American English words and a second time using the British equivalents. Stuck? Let the Visual Thesaurus be your guide! You'll find all of these words (both American and British) in Visual Thesaurus word maps.

flat, cookies, tic-tac-toe, hood, intersections, chips, pharmacy, torch, crossroads, diaper, telly, car park, freeway, bonnet, petrol, driver's license, biscuits, apartment, motorway, french fries,
flashlight, high street, parking lot, lift, tv, main street, nappy, elevator, chemist's shop, gas, driving licence, noughts and crosses

Before you take off in your car, make sure that you have your _____ and that you've gone by the _____ to pick up Grandma's medicine. And since the car is quite old, you might want to peek under its _____ to make sure the engine is running well. Oh, and pack a _____ in case you get stranded in the dark.

Drive down _____ and after you pass through three _____, get on the ramp to the _____ heading north. You'll be driving for about four hours, so you might need to take a break to buy _____ for the car, change the baby's _____, or to play a quick game of _____. You could also buy some _____ if you get hungry.

Take exit 73. At the end of the ramp, you'll see grandma's _____. Park your car in the _____ and take the _____ to the 10th floor. Give Grandma the medicine, watch a little _____ with her, and she'll probably give you some home-baked _____ as a reward.